Working BEE BEDS - 26th October

Yes it's been a full on year, and we have received great support from members. Our last event for the year is the final of the Barwon Equestrian Dressage Series and will be a great day with series champions awarded. Again, we need lots of help - working bee Sat 25th from 1pm and will need gear checkers, pencillers and canteen help. Packing up will come off working bee hours and all help greatly appreciated! Jobs will be allocated at October rally. If you have a preference, please see Allison today.

Racecourse Reserve Meeting

There will be a meeting on the 9th of October at 5.30pm at the Bacchus Marsh Public Hall (supper room) regarding the future of our grounds. The meeting will be a community workshop with open public discussion about the Master Plan Draft. So if you are able to attend, the support would be great.

Lessons

Nina and Yona will be conducting lessons once a fortnight, on a Tuesday, flat and jumping. If interested please see Tracey to put your name on a waiting list.

Awards Night

Our Awards Night will be held on Friday December 12th at Bacchus Marsh Pony Club Grounds. Further details will be provided at a later date.

Final Rally

At this stage the final rally will be a triathlon (ride, swim, run). Lots of fun for the kids. More details on next newsletter.

Show Jumping and Dressage Eliminations

Eliminations will be held on the 14th December at Ballarat. Grades 1-3 Dressage and A-C Show Jumping. Practise for people graded at these levels will begin on Tuesday 7th October at 4:30pm. Please see Peter or Toni at this rally for more information.

Canteen Roster

November: Thompson, Trollope and Vigor Families.

December: Wardell, Wilson and Wright Families.

If you are unable to do your rostered day in the canteen could you contact Anne Wilson before the rally, so we are able to find a replacement?
